

Meet Our Staff

All Camp Longfellow staff have experience working with children and are trained in CPR and basic first aid.

Karen Mahoney - Camp Director

Karen has been the Director of Camp Longfellow since 1994. In addition to running the summer camp, Karen is very busy all year as director of The Longfellow Children's Center.

Tina Wright - Aquatics

Tina is the Aquatics Director at The Longfellow Club. She has taught all ages and levels of swimming in her fifteen years at the club. She also coaches our summer swim team. Tina brings lots of enthusiasm and creativity to Camp Longfellow's aquatic activities.

Phil Parrish - Tennis

Phil is one of New England's most well-known tennis leaders. His knowledge of the game, his organizational skills, and his ability to inspire a team of tennis professionals is simply extraordinary.

T.C. Leger - Sports

T.C. has over seven years of experience as a fitness instructor. She is a certified lead teacher in our preschool program and teaches all of our physical fitness and music and movement classes.

CIT Program

For children ages 11-14, CITs learn CPR, first aid skills, self defense, water safety, and games and activities to play with campers in a hands-on environment. Call Karen for an application and more information about this exciting opportunity.

Longfellow Arts Camp

Introduced in the Summer of 2003, this is an exciting program for kindergarten aged children and up. Campers experience music, creative movement, drama, dance, and fine art as they explore their total creativity. Improvisation to ceramics and lots in between! Call Karen Mahoney for more details and a brochure.

Back for 2005!!!

Learning Connections

A camp for kids entering the 2nd through 6th grades. We combine math, reading and writing skills tutoring in a small-group setting with certified teachers. In addition, there is a swim lesson at The Longfellow Club pool. Full lunch included! Contact Karen for more information on this exciting new program.
